

Journal

Office of Legislative Counsel

Wednesday - 30 April 1958

Talked with Colonel Boatwright by telephone and he indicated he could find no basis for an assertion by JAG section in [] that a suit had been filed by [] against the Government and suggested that no purpose would be served by pursuing the matter further. This information was passed to IO.

25X1A

Harry Carter, Deputy General Counsel, USIA, called to inform us that he was going to see Mr. Earle C. Clements early this morning. I suggested the possibility that we should go together since our materials were reasonably in shape. He demurred to this. Subsequently, Mr. Clements called and asked if we could be present with Harry Carter whom we had "sent" to see him. At five o'clock, [] and Legislative Counsel met with USIA officials and Mr. Clements. Senator Eastland joined the group. (See memorandum for the DCI dated 1 May 1958 for full details.)

25X1

Senator Henry M. Jackson (Wash.) telephoned Legislative Counsel to make an appointment for one [] a former employee of CIA, for 9:30 on Thursday, 1 May 1958.

25X1A

Mrs. Redwine in the office of Congressman Thomas J. Lane (Mass.) called to say the wife of an employee of CIA had contacted the Congressman's office regarding her husband, [] who is employed as a GS-12 [] Someone within the Agency is trying to bring about the retirement of [] on medical disability. [] does not want to retire and feels perfectly able to work. His superiors have talked with him and said they want him to continue, they like him and he is doing a fine job. However, he has been called to Curie Hall on two occasions to discuss his retirement. Mrs. Redwine would like full particulars on this.

25X1A

25X1A

25X1A

25X1A

After talking with [] Personal Office, Mrs. Redwine was advised that basically there was a medical disqualification for [] previous job and efforts were being made to place him in some other job although failing this we would encourage his disability retirement. This seemed to satisfy Mrs. Redwine.

25X1A

25X1A

CRC, 3/4/2003

OGC Has Reviewed

25X1A

25X1A